

Willow Farm Equestrian Centre

Please take a moment to view the terms and conditions of booking with Willow Farm EC. It is upon booking lesson or hack with us that we understand that you have accepted these terms and conditions.

Terms & Conditions

1. Please give 48 hours notice of cancellation, otherwise you will be charged the full amount of the cost of the lesson.
2. We reserve the right to alter horses/instructors booked if necessary.
3. We require you to complete a rider registration form.
4. We are sorry but we operate a general rider weight limit of 12 stone.
5. Children must have had their 5th birthday.
6. Current British Standard head protection and footwear must be worn when mounted. (Trainers are not acceptable and you will not be allowed to ride)
7. Take care of your belongings. Willow Farm EC does not accept any responsibility for loss/damage/theft of them, or from any vehicles, while you are on Willow Farm property. (Do not leave valuables on display in your car)
8. Riding is a risk sport. Horses can be unpredictable. Upon booking with Willow Farm E.C we understand that you have acknowledged that and accept the risk involved. We do recommend all our new clients have Personal Accident Insurance cover.
9. All new clients will be assessed before being allocated a regular lesson time. All new clients must be assessed on a group lesson before they are allowed to hack out and no children under the age of 14 may participate.
10. Please note that Willow Farm EC is a No Smoking site, unless in the designated area.
11. No dogs are allowed on site except Guide Dogs.

Thank you for riding with us.

Updated 1st May 2014